

Charles DuVal Waddell

Biography

Charles DuVal Waddell, a 14-year resident of Herndon and native Virginian, is serving his second term on the Herndon Town Council. He serves on the council's Interview Committee and on the Joint Communications Committee between the council and the Planning Commission. In 2007, 2008 and 2009, he has been appointed to the Transportation Policy Committee of the Virginia Municipal League (VML).

An active member of the Dumbarton Square Homeowners' Association, Waddell has served as the group's president for the past 12 years. He is the current chairman of the Herndon Community Association Coalition (HCAC), a post he has held for six years. His community service also includes several seasons as a volunteer at Herndon's Friday Night Live concerts and volunteering with the Herndon Optimist Club during the Herndon Festival.

Waddell is secretary of the Herndon Historical Society and past chairman of the Herndon Crime Prevention Council. He is also a graduate of the Herndon Neighborhood College, the Herndon Citizens Police Academy and the Citizens Planning Education Association of Virginia's Certified Planning Commissioners Program.

Waddell holds a BS degree from Randolph-Macon College and an associate degree in applied science, cum laude, from J. Sargeant Reynolds Community College. He is a senior systems engineer with Systems Engineering Services Corporation in Reston, VA and is the father of two adult children.